

Let's Debate Raw Milk

Do you seek the real truth? Not information crafted to sell products to the masses?

You be the judge who won...just watch the debate. Kudos to Harvard for hosting on this controversial (because of the dairy lobby) topic. The first 20 minutes are amazing – in case you don't have time to watch the whole video. Did the attorney say anything that wasn't from the government or based on cases from which he stands to gain financially? I get the impression that the veterinarian was dozing during the Sally's presentation.
